

His Grace Is Sufficient

Text: Jeanne Newman Burgon

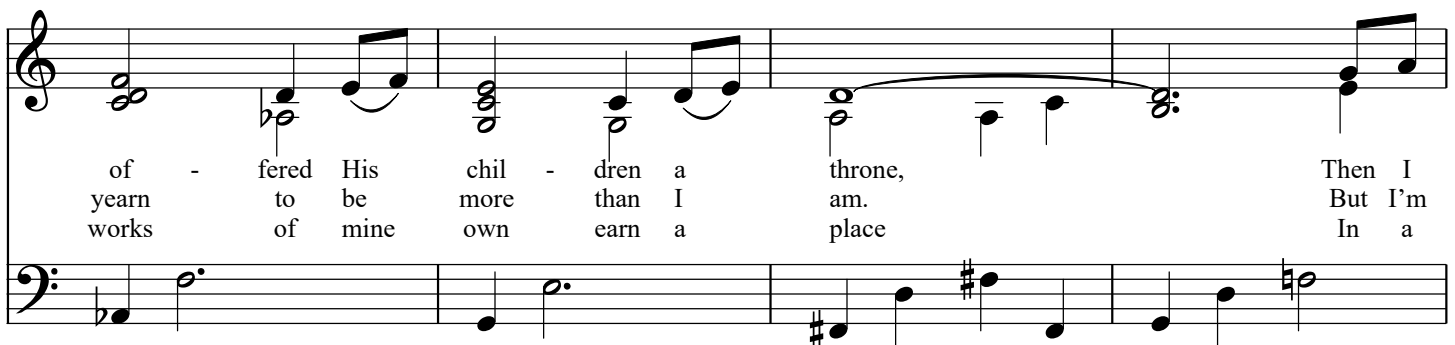

Music: Mark Newman

Thoughtfully (♩=88)

Unison

1. When the Fa - ther pre - sent - ed His plan of sal - va - tion That
2. Now I walk here on earth, fall - ing short day by day, And I
3. Though no mer - it of mine can be wor - thy of praise, Nor can of - fered His chil - dren a throne, Then I yearn to be more than I am. But I'm works of mine own earn a place In a shout - ed for joy! Did I trem - ble, as well, Lest I not left a - lone, for He suc - cors my soul As my king - dom ce - les - tial, a joint heir with Christ, Once a - fail the pro - ba - tion to come? He pro - co - ve - nants bind me to Him. Like a

- gain in my Par - ents' em - brace, As I

- vid - ed a Sa - vior: Je - ho - vah, Him - self, Hum - bly branch in the vine, I a - bide in His love: All I come un - to Christ, then His mer - its re - deem-- Make me spoke: "Here am I: send thou me." And I need flows from Him in - to me. As I jus - ti - fied, sanc - ti - fied, free- And the left Them, as - sured by my faith in His pro - mise: "My trust and re - pent, His as - sur - ance con - tin - ues: "My glo - ry is His whose A - tone - ment en - sures That His grace is suf - fi - cient for thee."

 grace is suf - fi - cient for thee."
 grace is suf - fi - cient for me.