

I Turn to Him

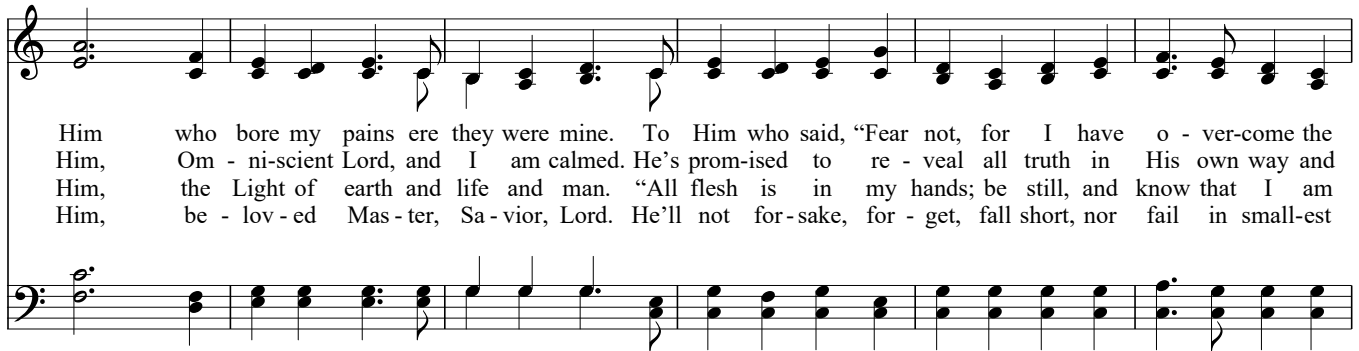

Jeanne Newman Burgon

Mark Newman

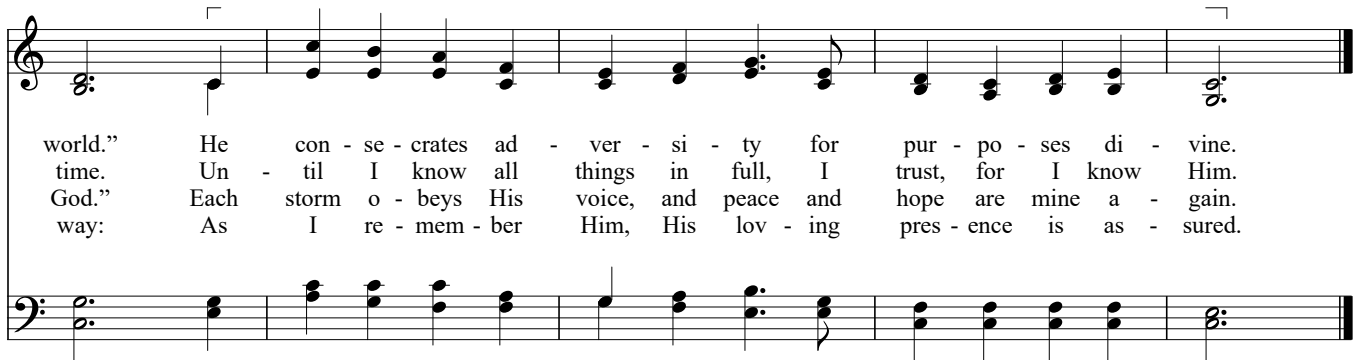

Peacefully (♩=50)

1. When troub - les, grief, or bur - dens weight me more than I can bear, I turn to
2. When ques - tions un - re - solved and world - ly doubts press on my mind, I turn to
3. When fear, de - pres - sion, wor - ry o - ver - whelm like dark'n - ing cloud, I turn to 4. No mat - ter what be - falls me through - out all my mor - tal day, I'll turn to Him who bore my pains ere they were mine. To Him who said, "Fear not, for I have o - ver - come the Him, Om - ni - scient Lord, and I am calmed. He's prom - ised to re - veal all truth in His own way and Him, the Light of earth and life and man. "All flesh is in my hands; be still, and know that I am Him, be - lov - ed Mas - ter, Sa - vior, Lord. He'll not for - sake, for - get, fall short, nor fail in small - est world." He con - se - crates ad - ver - si - ty for pur - po - ses di - vine.

time. Un - til I know all things in full, I trust, for I know Him.
God." Each storm o - beys His voice, and peace and hope are mine a - gain.
way: As I re - mem - ber Him, His lov - ing pres - ence is as - sured.