

Minister Unto the One

Text: Jeanne Newman Burgon

Music: Mark Newman

Fervently (♩=44)

1. Ev'-ry per - son on earth is be - lov - ed of God, son or daugh - ter of Par - ents a - bove. Though im -
2. As the Sa - vior's dis - ci - ples, to love as He loved is the work we've been sent to per - form. Wheth - er
3. As we pray with all fer - vor of heart, we'll be filled with the char - i - ty need - ed to serve As the

- per - fect and stray - ing, they ne - ver can roam be - yond reach of Their in - fi - nite love. They've been friends or still stran - gers, when lives in - ter - twine, we can e - di - fy, streng - then, and warm Ev' - er hands of the Lord, with His light in our eyes, a re - flec - tion of His per - fect love. We love bought with a price: pre - cious blood of the Sa - vior was shed to re - deem con - trite souls. And the soul, one by one, not for no - tice or praise, but as guid - ed by prompt - ings with - in. Out of neigh - bor as self when we hum - bly en - dea - vor to min - is - ter un - to the one. Day by work and the glo - ry of God and His Son is to bring each one back to the fold.

small things we do He brings great things to pass when with heart, mind, and soul we love Him.
day, we thus keep the com - mand - ment He gave: "Feed my sheep; feed my lambs— bring them home!"