

O Hear My Prayer

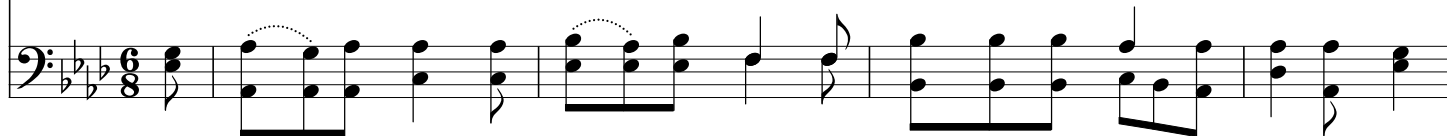

Parley W. Newman Jr.

Mark Newman

Prayerfully (♩=66)

O hear my prayer, most gra - cious Lord, which springs from my heart in gen - tle chord.
The sounds of my lips in soft chor - us flow to Thy heaven - ly throne from earth be - low.
Fill Thou the needs of this mor - tal flesh; with my hu - man wants may I be blessed.

My spi - rit aches from toil and from care; from sin: a bur - den hard to bear.
To Thy ho - ly name just prais - es I sing; my words of glo - ry clear shall ring.
Grant me I pray a faith that is sure; from sin, de - ceit, may I find cure.

Be - fore Thee this head, so of - ten held proud, in hu - mil - i - ty sin - cere is bowed.
I thank Thee for life, the gos - pel re - stored, Thy mer - cy to me, most gra - cious Lord.
Give me, O Lord, a love of man - kind; of ha - tred and an - ger purge my mind.

The depths of my soul to Thee I now bare, as I, Lord, Thy child seek Thee in prayer.
Hear now this plea which to Thee I bring. Give heed to my words, O no - blest King.
And now, my God, the strength to en - dure, that one day be - fore Thee I may stand pure.
