

Unity

Music and Lyrics by Mark Newman

Happily (♩=120)

1. When an - y - one looks at you and me: Our dif - fer - en - ces are plain to see.
2. Dif - fer - ent things that we've been taught; Ex - per - i - en - ces have shaped our thoughts.

No pedal

Dif - fer - ent eyes and dif - fer - ent hair; Our dif - fer - ent skin and clothes we wear. Our Dif - fer - ent minds and dif - fer - ent hopes; And dif - fer - ent peo - ple get our votes. We dif - fer - en - ces don't mean a lot. Re - mem - ber the things that Je - sus taught: "If must - n't be quar - rel - some. In - stead, Re - mem - ber the things that Je - sus said: "A rall.

ye are not one, ye are not mine." That we may all be Thine we'll live in king - dom di - vi - ded shall not stand." By walk - ing hand in hand we'll live in

Lovingly (♩=94)

U - ni-ty, you and me. E-ven if we dis-a-gree, I re-spect what you be-

Pedal

- lieve. You can see the good in me. U - ni - ty, char - i - ty,

I love you and you love me. We'll be friends e-ter-nal - ly and live in u - ni-

1. accel. A Tempo 2. rall.

- ty. ty. We'll live un u - ni - ty.